

11th HyMeX Workshop 29 May - 02 June 2018, Lecce, Italy

The 11th HyMeX Workshop will take place from 29 May to 02 June 2018 in Lecce, Italy, at the Grand Hotel Tiziano e dei Congressi (www.grandhoteltiziano.it). It will be organized by the Institute of Atmospheric Sciences and Climate (ISAC-CNR) in collaboration with the University of Salento and the Euro-Mediterranean Center on Climate Change (CMCC).

The general objectives of the HyMeX Workshops are to present and discuss recent scientific progresses in the understanding of the Mediterranean water cycle, from multiscale and multidisciplinary approaches, and to foster further collaborations within the HyMeX community.

The 11th HyMeX workshop will be organized along the HyMeX science topics: heavy precipitation, Mediterranean cyclones, ocean circulation and processes, drought and water resources, flash-floods and social vulnerability, integrated prediction of heavy precipitation and impacts, the water cycle and renewable energy.

The workshop programme will consist in plenary and parallel sessions, both oral and poster, with an open call for contributions, meetings of the Science Teams, as well as meetings for the preparation of the field campaigns of the next three years on atmospheric electricity (EXAEDRE), dense water formation in the Eastern basin (PERLE), and land surface interactions with the atmosphere over the Iberian semi-arid environment (LIAISE).
