

10-year HyMeX Workshop

25-29 May 2020, Toulouse, France

Workshop objectives

The edition of the yearly HyMeX International Workshops will be largely devoted to the review of the programme's major results since its beginning in 2010, and its legacy in terms of advances in knowledge, scientific dynamics and challenges for the years to come. Besides the 10-year HyMeX review sessions, the workshop will consist of plenary and parallel sessions to present and discuss recent scientific progresses in the understanding of the Mediterranean water cycle and associated hydrometeorological extremes, with an open call for contributions, as well as meetings on future works.

Abstract Submission Deadline: 10 February 2020

We invite you to submit a short abstract for oral or poster presentation of your last results related to the Mediterranean water cycle and HyMeX science topics: heavy precipitation, flash-floods and social vulnerability, integrated prediction of heavy precipitation and impacts, Mediterranean cyclones, strong winds and intense air-sea fluxes, deep water formation and ocean circulation, Mediterranean Sea water budget, droughts and water resources.

Short abstract can be submitted online at:

Venue

The 10-year HyMeX workshop will take place at Météo-France International Conferences Center in Toulouse, France (www.meteo.fr/cic/) from 25 to 29 May 2020. Located just 8 km from Toulouse international airport and connected by public transport to downtown, the conference center is located on the Météo-France campus, bringing together Météo-France's central operational services, the National Centre for Meteorological Researches (CNRM) and the Met school, as well as the National flood forecasting service (SCHAPI). Toulouse, the pink city, is the capital of the Occitanie Region bordering the northwestern Mediterranean Sea.

Practitioners' Day 28 May 2020

Within the framework of the workshop, a day of presentation of the 10-year HyMeX results for practitioners is scheduled on Thursday, 28 May. This day will be organised in sessions of 1h-2h, with presentations by the researchers involved in the programme followed by a question and discussion time with the participants. Participants will choose the sessions they wish to attend at the time of registration. The sessions will be in French or English, depending on the speakers and audience. There will be no registration fee for attending the practitioners' day only, but registration will be required.

Registration and fees

The full-pack conference fee will cover the conference material, coffee breaks, welcome reception and lunches on Monday, 25 May, Tuesday, 26 May, and Wednesday, 27 May. The conference dinner on Wednesday, 27 May will be optional:

- Early bird registration fee (up to 3 April 2020) - 260 Euros
- Registration fee (up to 24 April 2020) - 340 Euros
- Conference dinner - 40 Euros

Lunches on Thursday, 28 May and Friday, 29 May are not included in the pack, they can be taken at the campus restaurant and purchased on-site.
